In all the talk that is now going on in connection with the tariff Prof. Wilson ting law. The only answer necessary, to his feeble utterances is to recall, the fact that the people of his own districas a direct result of this law placed him quiside the breastworks, so that he stands to-day as a very inconsequential: privato citizon for newspaper revenue

It is immeasurably better so. The civil: war is history now, and oven the protest made this year against the holiday character given by many to the day. Tall; strangely upon the ears of ninew generation that does not, remember the war with any share in its passions.—New York World.

Love of country, liberty and devotion to the flag now figure in yellow; journal-In as passion. It is a matter for thank Boston & Bangor Steamship Co. that the men of it were not cult in that way.

Senator Morgan was 'called, to, order, the other day when he, entered 'upon a characteristic arraignment of the House, The despatches say that he manifested deep emotion when he declared sit was the first time to be bed entered in this way during his long experience. in the Senate. It is encouraging to know thauthern la allimit to the patience of the Senate. Had Senato: Morgan been called to order ofther the people would have been better niegeed.

The Boston Herald had inn one unity Roold fit Monday. It noted the fact there has been within the week "a manked increaso of confidence in business elecles," and assigned as a reason that "the Senate has made steady progress on the tariff bill atta rato more rapid than had been expected even by the friends of that measure." Once a protective tariff law is placed upon the statute books the way is paved leading to a resumption of baldesa prosperliv.

The Democrat c colltons are sual now hammering away at Speaker Reed, but at last accounts the Maine Congressian was not losing any sixen in country one of this Democratic criticism. This seaion of Congress was called to pass a tailfibill. The House did its part of the work promptly and is now waiting for the Schaie.
